The Democrats mustered suffi cient strength to force Speaker Cannon to break a tie in order that the bill might be taken up, the Democrats assuming their attitude of antagonism because Mr. Hill (Connecticut). An amendment was offered by Mr. Williams, requiring the payment of interest by banks on amounts deposited by the government, and limiting the amount to be deposited in any one bank uidding in competition for the same. Mr. Hill, opposing the amendment, said that as the bill was purely an administrative one, the government should be permitted to handle its money in exactly the same way as an individual would apply it to himself.

Awful Suffering of Baby and Sleepless Nights of Mother.

BY CUTICURA CURED

Skip Fair as a Lily with no Scar to Recall Awful Sore Writes Mother.

"I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease, eczema, which caused my babe untold suffering and myself many sleepless nights.

"My babe was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of, but nothing seemed to help; in fact, it grew worse. Her hair fell out where the sore was, and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment right away.

"To please him I did so, and to my surprise by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a lity, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore, and it is over eight months and no sign of its returning."

Mr. Lundstrom again gave the committee the oath of vengetnee or law of retribution. The witness told the committee also of the penalties of mutilation prescribed for revealing the tokens or violating the covenants. The whole congregation passing through the Temple repeated in the first person the obligations and penalties and executed the signs accompanying them. He was asked if he had ever married in polygamy. New Proposition Said to Meet With Disfavor in Many Quarters.

MEANS DELAY AND EXPENSE

Asserted That Suggestion of Compromise Came From Railroads Themselves.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., December 15.—
The establishment of an interstake Commerce Court for the adjudication of all disputes over freight rates, is not at all disputes over reight rates, is not at an approved by those who want the Congress to give to the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to regulate freight rates in accordance with the recommendation of the President in his annual message. mission authority to regulate freight rates in accordance with the recommendation of the President in his annual message. The discovery made yesterday that the President was studying this proposition as a substitute for they one made in his message, brought out the fact that a court would not be at all satisfactory to those who wish really to sea Tutes regulated. Indeed, it is asserted that the proposition to establish a court came from the railroads. It is said that representatives of some of the roads saw that legislation along the lines suggested by the President was almost assured. They therefore broached the idea of the court to deal solely with appeals in rate cases. Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, whose bill broadening the powers of the Interstate Commission so as to give the control of rates charged by railroads is now pending, said to-day that the establishment of the court would mean only such great delay and expense in the decision of rate cases that small shippers would rather be overcharged than appeal a case.

"The burden of the proof that a quoted rate is fair and reasonable should restupon the railroad," said Mr. Cooper, "That would be the effect of my bill."

Mr. Cooper saw the President to-day, and insisted that the only way to settle the trouble with the roads was to give the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to deal with them in the matier of fixing rates, opportunity to appeal to the courts bring granted, of course.

Hearings on the bill are being held by the Committee on Commerce, and will be continued for several days.
